

Tulsa Indian Art Festival

A stylized graphic of a feather, rendered in black and white, positioned below the festival title. The feather is oriented horizontally, with its base on the left and its tip on the right. The shaft of the feather is thick and curves downwards, while the barbs are thin and radiate from the shaft, creating a sense of movement and texture.

TO: ARTISTS INTERESTED IN THE TULSA INDIAN ART FESTIVAL 2010

Thank you for your interest in the 24th Annual Tulsa Indian Art Festival (TIAF) to be held February 12-13-14, 2010 at Spirit Bank Event Center, 10411 S. Regal Drive (105th and So. Memorial Drive), Tulsa, OK. TIAF is an all volunteer network working to showcase quality American Indian art and culture. It is invitational and is a juried fine art exhibit and market.

To apply for an invitation, please mail four (4) clear photos or slides of your recent artwork; a complete bio telling us where you have exhibited, awards galleries who exhibit your work and any other specific information about you and your artwork. Also, we must have a copy of your Tribal documentation for our files.

Once the photos, tribal documentation and information are received, the Directors will review your request. If you are accepted, an application will be mailed. If you are not accepted, your photos will be returned.

Exhibit space is limited so please send your information as soon as possible. Thanks again for your inquiry.

Sincerely,

Fran L. Kimmel
